

The View From Saturday

By: E.L. Konigsburg

The View From Saturday is a really good book. In it you meet “The Souls” Mrs. Olinski’s 6th Grade academic bowl team: Ethan, Nadia, Noah, and Julian. It not only tells the story of who wins the academic bowl championship but also how their lives became intertwined together. Julian started it all by invited them all to a tea party and from there they went on to be an amazing team. They each had experiences that help them succeed in the bowl. Each chapter is narrated by a different character, which I really like because you get to see each persons view. Read The View from Saturday to see how they came together and if it will be enough for them to win the championship.
